

Smoking Regulations Safety Signs

England

The Smoke-free (Signs) Regulations 2007
Effective from 1st July 2007

Requirement: Regulations are part of the legislation banning smoking in most enclosed public places in England.

Signage Requirement: The law requires the signs to be a minimum of A5 in size (148x210mm) and contain a no smoking symbol that is a minimum of 75mm in diameter. The wording must be 'No smoking. It is against the law to smoke in these premises'. The words 'these premises' can be substituted for a specific description eg 'No smoking. It is against the law to smoke in this restaurant'. The following signs must be displayed at each public entrance in a conspicuous position for staff and visitors entering building.
